LIVING ORTHODOX TRADITIONS

*You are Invited to Holy Supper
Christmas Eve, Friday, January 6, 2023,
5:00 PM in the Cathedral Hall*

Donation: $10 to benefit the Cathedral Building Fund

Following the 40 days of Nativity Lent, the birth of Jesus Christ is commemorated with a final Lenten feast on Christmas Eve, this year on Friday, January 6, 2023.

The Holy Supper table is replete with symbolism: from placing hay under the table and tablecloth in memory of the manger in which the Holy Child was placed by His Mother at His birth, to the white linen tablecloth which represents Jesus' swaddling birth clothes.

Holy Supper consists of 12 courses, symbolic of the 12 Apostles. The foods range from bitter to sweet to remind us of the bitterness of life before Christ was born and the sweetness of life which comes after His birth.

Holy Supper begins with the singing of the Christmas Troparion and the lighting of a candle placed in the center of the table. The candle symbolizes the star of Bethlehem. Bishop Luke will then lead us in prayer which includes reading the Nativity account from the Gospel of St. Matthew 2:1-12. He will ask God in the opening prayer to bless the bread, wine, and food. He then breaks the bread and passes it out to all present. This symbolizes Christ at the Last Supper. At the conclusion of the meal, it is traditional for all to attend Vespers, following which the Patriarchal Choir sings Christmas Carols.

Are you coming to Holy Supper?
Please prepare and bring your favorite traditional dish (and let Susan Guz know -- guzsc@yahoo.com -- what you plan to bring.) Thank you!

The Scripture Reading for Sunday, January 8, 2023 - Matthew 2:13-23

Today's Scripture reading gives an account of Jesus' birth – but as seen through the eyes of King Herod, a jealous, ruthless king, a murdering king. Herod was deeply disturbed when he learned that a child had been born who was being called "King of the Jews." He was threatened and paranoid -- even though Jesus was a baby and he was an old man. Herod is the dark side of Christmas. And we can relate his cruelty to our own dark feelings. Christmas is not only about "good tidings of great joy." At the time of Jesus' birth – then and now -- there is sorrow and pain. Perhaps you were not merry and jolly this Christmas, thinking about the problems in the world. But the miracle of the Nativity is that Jesus brings hope and peace when we are overcome with sorrow and despair. Trust the new King Who was born – Jesus Christ – He Who will conquer death; heal our hurts; deliver us from our sin; and relieve our despair. No matter what the New Year 2023 brings, know that you can meet any challenges and obstacles ahead with the hope that Jesus makes available to you!

Matthew 2:13

"Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, 'Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.'"

You are looking at the new Fellowship Lunch calendar for 2023 hanging on the side of the white fridge in the Cathedral Kitchen. Please choose a Sunday, mark your name on the calendar and plan to prepare a lunch for the congregation. You need not do it alone. Ask family members and friends to make one dish for the lunch. Many hands make light work! The Fellowship Lunch brings in additional income for the Cathedral and it's an opportunity to socialize with parishioners, too! (Jan. 15, Feb. 5, Feb. 12 and Mar. 19 are already reserved!)

Our Angel Advent Ornaments, available in the Candle Room for $20 each, have been very popular. Bishop Luke announced that he will collect the Angels when our Christmas Trees are taken down, and he will pray a Moleben or Panikhida for all names written on the Angels.

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 8, 2023

30TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all!
READER: And to thy spirit.
PRIEST: Wisdom!
READER: The Prokeimenon in the 5th Tone:
Thou, O Lord, shall protect us and preserve us from this generation forever.

CHOIR: Thou, O Lord, shall protect us and preserve us from this generation forever!

READER: Save me, O Lord, for there is no longer any that is godly. Thou, O Lord, shall protect us.

CHOIR: And preserve us from this generation forever.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Hebrews.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters. He says, "I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters; in the assembly I will sing your praises." And again, "I will put my trust in him." And again he says, "Here am I, and the children God has given me." Since the children have flesh and blood, He too shared in their humanity so that by His death He might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil — and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. For surely it is not angels He helps, but Abraham's descendants. For this reason He had to be made like them, fully human in every way, in order that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that He might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because He Himself suffered when He was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted. (Hebrews 2:11-18)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: I will sing of Thy mercies, O Lord, forever.
With my mouth I will proclaim Thy truth from generation to generation.
For Thou has said, "Mercy will be established forever, and My truth will be prepared in the heavens."

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him." When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My Son." Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying: A voice was heard in Ramah, Lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, Refusing to be comforted, Because they are no more." Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young Child's life are dead." Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the region of Galilee. And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene." (Matthew 2:13-23)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
