Father Bohdan's Sermon – Sunday, June 14, 2020

Matthew 10:32-33; 37-38; 19:27-30

Today's Bible reading is short – and its message is very clear: WHAT IS YOUR REWARD FOR FOLLOWING CHRIST? The answer is: ETERNAL LIFE. Eternity in God's presence. Eternity in God's family. Today we commemorate all the extraordinary saints who gave up everything to follow Jesus. They gave up their families, jobs and possessions to follow Christ and preach His teachings, with the promise of eternal life. Must YOU give up everything? All the Church asks of you is to give up your TIME to follow Christ – just 1 hour on a Sunday morning!

And then devote time to doing good work in the Church. As you know, there is no end to the work that is needed in the Church. I know there are faithful, dedicated people in our church family who organize, cook, comfort, teach, pray, preach, clean, sing and more. The work is just waiting for true followers of Christ to step up and say "HERE I AM, LORD. PUT ME TO WORK. I AM NOT HERE FOR A FREE RIDE." Can we then call you a saint for doing such work for the Church? NO. Only God will judge you. That what is meant by the words in today's Scripture reading: Many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first. AMEN.

What is a MOLEBEN?

A Moleben is a prayer service of intercession, supplication or thanksgiving asking Jesus Christ, the Holy Theotokos or one of the saints for assistance. Molebens may be served for a specific need, e.g., for someone who is ill; prior to surgery or travel; in commemoration of an event, such as the beginning of the New Year, or when students graduate or start a school term; or a Moleben may be devotional, in honor of a particular saint.

His Holiness Patriarch Philaret, Very Reverend Borys Tabachek and Clergy are pictured here in the Patriarchal Cathedral in Kyiv on Sunday, June 14.

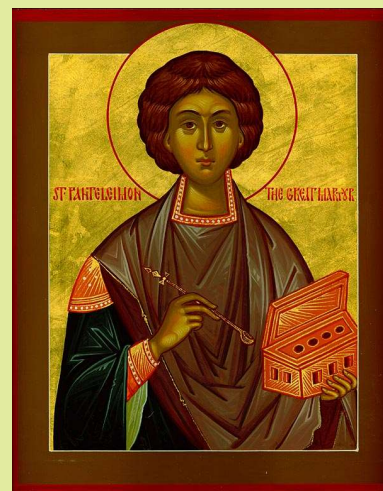

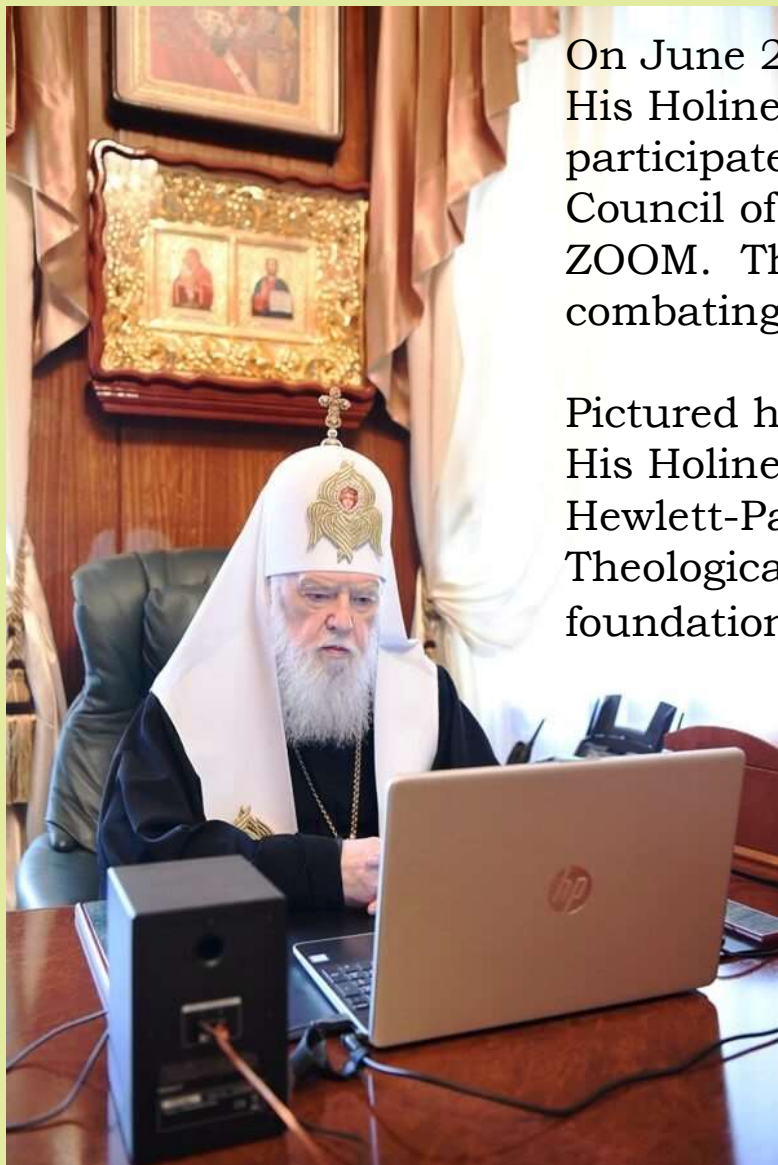

On Sunday, June 14, two Molebens were served for two St. Nicholas Parishioners – on opposite sides of the world!

Father Bohdan served a Moleben for the health of Frank Murphy following Divine Liturgy in St. Nicholas Church in Philadelphia.

And His Holiness Patriarch Philaret and Very Reverend Borys Tabachek, Rector, served a Moleben to the Holy Theotokos in the Patriarchal Cathedral in Kyiv, for the health of our Council President, Thomas Hanney, as he recovers from surgery.

On June 2, 2020, alone in his office in Kyiv, His Holiness Patriarch Philaret, 91 years old, participated in a meeting of the Honorable Council of the Order of St. Panteleimon – via ZOOM. The Council discussed the issue of combating the spread of coronavirus.

Pictured here during the ZOOM meeting is His Holiness Patriarch Philaret using his Hewlett-Packard laptop, a donation from Theological Institute Philadelphia, a U.S. foundation.

The Holy Great Martyr and Healer Panteleimon is invoked in the Mystery of Anointing the Sick, at the Blessing of Water, and in Prayers for the Sick.

UPDATE: Last week we told you about the donation from Ellen Hanavin to the Cherkasy Orphanage in Ukraine. This week the news was published on the Orphanage's website -- chopdz.lic.org.ua -- with the headline:

THANKS FOR THE HELP!

Pictured here is our good friend and lawyer in Kyiv, Yaroslav Shevchenko, who played an important role in making sure the Orphanage received the donated gifts.

ORPHANAGE IN CHERKASY

Sunday, June 14, Orphanage in Cherkasy joyfully welcomed useful gifts from friends from the United States.

Diapers in the amount of 924 pieces, a lot of jars of shampoo, soap, baby cream, powder for children and all sorts of other useful things were transferred by lawyer Yaroslav Shevchenko on behalf of benefactors Ellen Hanavin and Very Reverend Bohdan Zhoba.

The director of the orphanage Svitlana Mikhno expressed gratitude to benefactors on her official website: "I sincerely thank to Ellen Hanavin, Very Reverend Bohdan Zhoba and Lawyer Yaroslav Shevchenko for the help provided."

For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law (for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel. (Romans 2:10-16)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

He magnifies the salvation of the king and deals mercifully with Christ, with David and his seed forever.

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." They immediately left their nets and followed Him. Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him. And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people. (Matthew 4:18-23)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
