Bulletin for Sunday, March 14, 2021

forgive US OUR TRESPASSES AS WE forgive THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US

Join the St. Nicholas Cathedral Clergy and Congregation on Sunday, March 14, 2021, as we begin Great Lent with Forgiveness Sunday Vespers and the special ceremony of mutual forgiveness (immediately following Divine Liturgy).

Before we begin the Lenten fast, we are reminded that there can be no true fast, no genuine repentance, no reconciliation with God, unless we are at the same time reconciled with one another.

The Sunday of Forgiveness is also known as Cheesefare Sunday.
This is the last day that dairy products can be eaten before Lent.

CHURCH

THE ROOF

MESSAGE FROM THE COUNCIL PRESIDENT,
Tom Hanney

Recently, the Church Council Officers and I have had many conversations about the roof on our beautiful church building. Simply put, the wrong type of roof was installed in 2017. It is a polyurethane roof not suitable for a pitched roof line. It provides absolutely no traction for snow and ice.

For those of you who have been coming to church throughout the month of February, you saw how dangerous the conditions were surrounding the building. Large sheets of snow and ice formed and were falling off throughout the day and night. In 2019 we lost all four awnings over our exterior doors to ice damage. Those awnings were replaced and since there was no snow in 2020, the awnings remained in place.

Unfortunately, with the large amounts of snow that fell in our area in 2021, we again lost all four awnings to avalanches of snow. We decided before anyone is seriously injured or worse, we need to make a decision about replacing the roof. At this time, we decided we will not replace the awnings until the proper roof is installed. The cost of the damaged awnings to date has been more than $2,800.00.

In addition, during the warm months of the summer, moisture builds up between the old shingles and polyurethane cover which we have learned can cause irreparable damage to the under layer of the roof. Having considered all the alternatives (e.g., snow blocks), I asked Barbara Latsios, who along with Susan Guz, is on the "Capital Improvement Committee" for St. Nicholas Church, to obtain bids for a new, asphalt shingle roof. We have already received two bids and are awaiting two more. I will discuss with you the results of the bids and our next steps to replace the roof at our Semi-Annual Parish Meeting on Sunday, March 21. Please plan on attending.

ANNUAL ENDOWMENT FUND DRIVE begins...

2 Corinthians 9:7

"Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

Our annual Endowment Fund Drive begins simultaneously with the start of Lent. It is customary to give alms -- a charitable gift -- during Lent. What better beneficiary than our beloved St. Nicholas Cathedral to ensure its future!

Please pick up a PINK envelope from the Candle Room and give generously. You can also give online on our website. Go to stnicholaseoc.org; click the DONATE tab at the bottom of the home page; scroll down and click "Endowment Fund."

THANK YOU!

Greetings!

Our beautiful Church Hall is known to “insiders” by that name. But to the outside world – the folks who rent our Hall – it is known as “Liberty North Banquet & Event Space” – and even has its own logo!

Renting the Hall, using ironclad contracts written by our lawyer, Laura Solomon and Associates, brings in much needed additional income for St. Nicholas Cathedral.

Last year at our budget meeting, the Council gave me the goal of generating $20,000 income for the Hall year 2020-2021, a low target pre-COVID, but a big challenge with ever-changing COVID restrictions.

I am happy to report that Hall rentals are picking up again, and we are more than half-way to that $20,000 goal!

Did you know that the Hall is rented every weekday night for “12-Step” group meetings? Other events include comedy shows, baby and wedding showers, birthday parties, motivational meetings, and last-minute memorial repasts. I give Hall tours when requested and meet clients at their convenience. Having a manager who lives within walking distance to St. Nicholas Cathedral is a big plus!

The only downside is the expected “wear and tear” on the Hall. But a paintbrush is always at the ready to touch up scratches and nicks. All of our parishioners are vigilant to keep the hall tidy and attractive at all times. Just recently, church member Nazarii Kalyniuk, a plumber by trade, changed unsightly, rusted, exposed drainpipes in the men’s bathroom, an eyesore even for a bathroom! Soon, new – more durable – vinyl tablecloths for both our round and rectangle tables will arrive – hopefully in time for Easter. Our current oilcloth tablecloths lasted 4 years.

And finally, last month I pledged $5,000 from the Hall Fund to bolster the newly-established Roof Fund. That sum will be transferred before year-end.

A special thank-you, too, to church member Christopher Borriello, who is our on-site manager during late-night events, making sure that parties end on time and responding to other assorted, unexpected situations that may arise.

So, spread the word about our popular event venue in Northern Liberties! And please bring any questions you may have to the Semi-Annual Parish Meeting on Sunday, March 21.

Best,
Susan

Parable of the Sheep and the Goats

Father Bohdan's
Sermon
Sunday,
March 7, 2021
Matthew 25:31-46

Today's Scripture reading makes it clear that Jesus is everywhere and especially in the lives among the unfortunate. Indeed, Jesus says He is one of the unfortunate people. Jesus' words: "As you gave others food or drink or clothes, you did it to me." There are dozens of references in the Bible to helping the poor and those who suffer from misfortune, oppression, or sickness. And will I – will YOU -- be judged by our actions when we encounter such unfortunate people? Most definitely YES. Jesus makes this spiritual lesson simple for us. In the parable in today's Scripture, He divides people into 2 groups: the sheep and the goats. The sheep are the compassionate givers; the disciples of Christ; the goats are the uncaring, selfish people who consciously decide not to follow Christ. And the sheep, by their nature, came to the aid of the needy. Their compassionate deeds are not a struggle, not a burden, but a natural act. You see a hungry, thirsty stranger, you give them food and drink without hesitation. The way to the Kingdom of God is by doing good. It is our duty to all mankind. When we do good to any man, we do good to God. We are given free will to choose what to do. And you have chosen to be good sheep. You are here listening to the words of Jesus Christ. I witness the good works you do. And you, the blessed, shall inherit the Kingdom of God. AMEN.

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, MARCH 14, 2021

FORGIVENESS & CHEESEFARE SUNDAY

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all!

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The Prokeimenon in the 7th Tone: The Lord shall give strength to His people! The Lord shall bless His people with peace!

CHOIR: The Lord shall give strength to His people! The Lord shall bless His people with peace!

READER: Offer to the Lord, O ye sons of God! Offer young rams to the Lord! The Lord shall give strength to His people!

CHOIR: The Lord shall bless His people with peace!

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Romans.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts. Receive one who is weak in the faith, but not to disputes over doubtful things. For one believes he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. Let not him who eats despise him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat judge him who eats; for God has received him. Who are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand. (Romans 13:11-14:4)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: It is good to give thanks unto the Lord, to sing praises to Thy Name O Most-High!
To declare Thy mercy in the morning and Thy truth by night!

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Moreover, when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.. (Matthew 6:14-21)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
