CHRIST IS RISEN! INDEED HE IS RISEN!

We are keeping a close watch on Governor Tom Wolf's plan to reopen the State of Pennsylvania, specifically the City of Philadelphia and are anxious to hear when he will lift "stay-at-home" orders. Even if the Governor gives the yellow or green light sometime in May, Father Bohdan wants to minimize risk and is keeping the Church closed until the first weekend in June – Pentecost weekend – June 7.

(Our Patriarchal Choir members, Eve, Nancy, Anthony and Andrew, will return in September.)

Father Bohdan's Sermon – Sunday, May 3, 2020
Mark 15:43-16:8

CHRIST IS RISEN!

Today, the third Sunday of Pascha, we celebrate the feast of the Holy Myrrh-Bearing Women. And we also commemorate Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, two prominent Jewish leaders who were also secret disciples of Christ. Joseph, a rich and noble man, dared to ask Pilate for the body of Jesus, which he took and laid in his own tomb. Accompanying Joseph was Nicodemus who brought myrrh and aloes to scent and embalm the body of Christ. Later, the women arrived at the tomb on Holy Pascha to anoint His body, only to discover it empty. These were all ordinary people who took action, compelled by their love for Jesus, risking retribution from the authorities and the public, risking their lives and safety to do what was necessary. The message in today's Scripture reading can be summed up as "humble service." We must follow the example of the myrrh-bearing women and two men -- serving Jesus with humility. And there are countless opportunities and practical acts to serve Christ, His Church, our neighbors, or any needy person.

If we want to experience the glory of this Pascha season and make Easter more than a cultural celebration, we must emulate those courageous and loving women and men we commemorate today. By the intercessions of the Holy Myrrh-Bearers, Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, O God, have mercy on us. Amen.

St. Nicholas Church needs your financial help more than ever. Along with many other individuals and businesses, our Church has lost significant income – yet the bills do not stop. A big THANK YOU to those of you who have been making your weekly “envelope” contributions and vigil payments online. This is a sensible way to handle money during this challenging time.

Saint John of Kronstadt

A "Modern" Saint

1829-1909

Father Bohdan was recently asked: “How can we go to Confession ‘safely’ – maintaining social distancing – during these unusual times?”

When we return to the Church, and until the pandemic is behind us, Father Bohdan will give absolution during a general Confession, after reading the prayer of St. John of Kronstadt. St. John was an Orthodox archpriest in St. Petersburg, canonized during his lifetime and known for his mass common confessions, numerous miracles and acts of charity. He is referred to as the Sant of Communion, Saint of Confession.

Of course, you should prepare properly for general Confession: fasting in the morning, praying, examining your conscience, reflecting on your actions and thoughts. The confession prayer of St. John of Kronstadt is lengthy and will be read aloud by the Reader prior to your receiving Communion.

Research into Saint John’s life revealed that Saint John is particularly known for his devotion to Holy Confessions. He spent countless hours with penitents, not only listening but instructing, sometimes postponing absolution until the penitent returned again and again. He had such a devout following that by 1890 St. John instituted the practice of group, public confessions. During these mass confessions that would last for hours, thousands of people would crowd into the Cathedral, weeping and shouting out their sins in repentance.

“...if you have done anything wrong, or even, sometimes when you have not done anything wrong, you feel a deadly despondency in your soul. Wherefore? Because you have allowed the evil spirit of despondency to take possession of you...”

READER: Brothers...Now it came to pass, as Peter went through all parts of the country, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda. There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years and was paralyzed. And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed." Then he arose immediately. So all who dwelt at Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord. At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and charitable deeds which she did. But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. But Peter put them all out, and knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. Then he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. (Acts 2:32-42)

PRIEST: Let us attend. After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had. Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me." Jesus said to him, "Rise, take up your bed and walk." And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked. And that day was the Sabbath. The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your bed." He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, 'Take up your bed and walk.' " Then they asked him, "Who is the Man who said to you, 'Take up your bed and walk?'" But the one who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a multitude being in that place. Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you have been made well. Sin no more, lest a worse thing come upon you." The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. (John 5:1-15)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
