Scripture Reading

for Sunday, May 14 – John 4:5-42

CHRIST IS RISEN! Today's Scripture reading tells of a conversation between Jesus and the Samaritan Woman who He encountered at Jacob's well. The water is symbolic of eternal life. And Jesus ultimately gives the Woman everlasting faith so that she would never be thirsty again. It is important to reflect on the initial meeting of Jesus and the Woman. When Jesus approached her at the well and said to her: Give Me A Drink, she was shocked because she was from Samaria and Jesus was a Jew – and, as is written in this Scripture passage: "Jews have no dealings with Samaritans." This Bible story shows us that Jesus cared about every person, regardless of gender, race, culture or station in life. The lesson for us is that we are all brothers and sisters, equal throughout eternity. The Samaritan woman was transformed by her meeting with Jesus – just as we all can be. She believed Jesus was truly the Messiah. She immediately repented of her past misdeeds and left to tell her friends and neighbors how she met Jesus and His offer of life-giving water – or eternal life. So God can -- and will -- use anyone He chooses to spread His word. Learn from this Scripture reading. Be tolerant of others, Love Thy Neighbor -- and realize that spiritual growth is a lifelong process. CHRIST IS RISEN!

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, MAY 14, 2023

SUNDAY OF THE SAMARITAN WOMAN AT THE WELL

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all! READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom! READER: The Prokeimenon in the 4th Tone: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

CHOIR: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

READER: Bless the Lord, O my soul. O my God, Thou art very great. O Lord, how manifold are Thy works!

CHOIR: In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

PRIEST: Wisdom! READER: The reading is from the Acts of the Holy Apostles.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch. When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord. For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to seek Saul. And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea. This they also did and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. (Acts 11:19-26; 29-30)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader. READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom! READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: Go forth, prosper and reign because of truth and meekness and righteousness. You love righteousness and hate iniquity.

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint John.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans. Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water." The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water? Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock? Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life. The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw." Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,' for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly. The woman said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet. Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship. Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth. The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, He will tell us all things." Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am He." And at this point His disciples came, and they marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?" The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men, Come, see a Man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ? Then they went out of the city and came to Him. In the meantime His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him anything to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work. Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest! And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. For in this the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors. And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, 'He told me all that I ever did.' So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days. And many more believed because of His own word. Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world." (John 4:5-42)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

In our April 23, 2023, Bulletin, we announced that contributions received during this year's Endowment Fund Drive (from Lent to Easter) totaled $2,665.00 – and that this sum would be matched by the Cathedral Operating Fund for a grand total of $5,330.00. On Sunday, May 7, 2023, Treasurer, Ellen Hanavin, gave a check, payable to Fidelity Investments, in that amount to Barbara McMonigle, who will personally hand-deliver the check to Jim McMonigle, the Administrator of the Endowment Fund. Thank you, again, to all those who contributed during this year's Fund Drive.

On Sunday, May 14, 2023, immediately following the monthly Panikhida prayer, Bishop Luke will present talented, dedicated and long-time Patriarchal Choir member, Anthony Sinigaglio II (bass), with a memento of appreciation as that Sunday will be Anthony's last day singing with the Patriarchal Choir – after 5 years. We will sing MANY YEARS! to Anthony. But he promises to return to sing Easter services with the Patriarchal Choir next year!
