Patriarchal Stavropigia of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, Kyivan Patriarchate

Bulletin for Easter Sunday, May 2, 2021

PASCHA

*Christ is risen from the dead,
trampling down death by death,
and upon those in the tombs bestowing life.
Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!*

E A S T E R M E S S A G E

from

Patriarch of Kyiv and All Rus-Ukraine Philaret

To the Most Reverend Archpastors, God-loving Pastors, and All the Faithful of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the Kyiv Patriarchate

Dear Brothers and Sisters! Christ Is Risen!

The resurrection of Christ radically changed the destiny of mankind and in particular the destiny of each of us. Instead of death and suffering, it gave us life and bliss. This year we celebrate the resurrection of Christ in the context of the coronavirus. In suffering, man often turns to God for help and repents of his sins. Jesus Christ also suffered for our salvation but was resurrected after suffering and death. So in our lives after suffering there is joy. Although the Lord punishes sins, He also has mercy. By His resurrection, Christ gives us the strength to fight against sin and resurrects our souls. Faith in the resurrection of the dead inspires us to selflessly serve God and the Church, our people and Ukraine in the name of love for Christ the Savior and man.

On these joyful Easter days, I greet you, Most Reverend Archpastors, God-loving Shepherds, honest monks, beloved brothers and sisters, on the feast of the Resurrection of Christ. Congratulations on Easter to the President of Ukraine Volodymyr Zelensky, the Verkhovna Rada, the Ukrainian Government, our glorious defenders - the Armed Forces of Ukraine, who do not spare their lives for the love of their homeland. Congratulations on our greatest Christian holiday to all the Ukrainian people and all Ukrainians who are outside Ukraine - in Europe, America and Canada, Latin America and Australia, on all continents, but love Ukraine and help it.

I pray that the Risen Christ will strengthen us mentally and physically and give us gracious help to do good deeds. Let no one and nothing overshadow our spiritual joy. We pray and implore the Risen Christ to give us a peaceful, calm and prosperous life. He is honored and worshiped forever and ever. Amen.

Truly Christ is Risen!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

CHRIST IS RISEN! INDEED HE IS RISEN!

It was a long journey to this point: Twelve weeks of preparation included five pre-lenten Sundays, six weeks of Great Lent and finally Holy Week. Repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation, prayer, fasting, almsgiving and study made this journey possible and meaningful. And now may the Risen Christ bestow His blessing upon you and keep you always in His care!

CHRIST IS RISEN! INDEED HE IS RISEN!

Father Bohdan

Father Bohdan reads the Holy Gospel on Palm Sunday.

Father Bohdan's Sermon
John 12:1-18

Today we celebrate the first Palm Sunday when Jesus was hailed as the Messiah as He entered Jerusalem and palm branches were laid at His feet.

Tomorrow is the start of Holy Week and a lot happens within a short period of time. How fickle we are! Sometimes we are like a weathervane, pointing in one direction and then in another. Look at the crowds who came to glorify Jesus today in Jerusalem! "Hosanna!" they shout. "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! The King of Israel!" Jesus shares a Last Supper with His apostles – and then is betrayed. Jesus forgives us and then we scream to the Romans CRUCIFY HIM!

All this happens within one week. Yes, there are those who remain true, steadfast, and confident in their devotion – even when the going gets tough. And during this Holy Week, as each day leads up to the Resurrection, it will be a difficult journey....especially Good Friday, which is not good at all. Jesus, after His long walk carrying the cross on His back, is crucified and dies. We mourn on this day. Some of us quit, some follow what the crowd does, some remain faithful despite terrible circumstances. What kind of person are YOU?

People love, hate and are indifferent to Jesus. Are you faithful like Mary and Martha – or are you a quitter like Judas? As your priest, I know the answer. You are here today, you are reverent, you are pious, you sacrifice, you change your priorities in life to be of service to your church and your faith. You believe and wait for the resurrection on Sunday, Pascha, as we celebrate Jesus' triumph over death! In your daily life, reflect upon the human qualities of the disciples and the people in Jesus' life – and death. Put yourself in their places.

Today, imagine yourself watching Jesus enter Jerusalem on the donkey. You know His fate – but you also know yours. We rejoice today – but will cry later in the week – and then we will REJOICE AGAIN on Easter! AMEN.

Altar Servers on Palm Sunday:
Matt Murphy, Danny Navan,
Kirk Whitmer and Ray McNulty

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, MAY 2, 2021

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all!

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The Prokeimenon in the 8th Tone: This is the day which the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

CHOIR: This is the day which the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

READER: O give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever! This is the day which the Lord has made!

CHOIR: Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Acts.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...The former account I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have heard from Me; for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" And He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."(Acts 1:1-8)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: Thou didst arise and have mercy on Zion. The Lord looked down from heaven and saw all the sons of men.

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint John.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. This man came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. That was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him. He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, 'He who comes after me is preferred before me, for He was before me.'" And of His fullness we have all received, and grace for grace. For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.. (John 1:1-17)

Happy Birthday

George Latsios and Ellen Hanavin were honored at our Fellowship Lunch on Sunday, April 25, as we wished them MANY YEARS. George celebrated his birthday on April 23. Ellen's birthday is April 26. Thank you to Barbara Latsios who donated the "Potato Pancake" brunch in honor of George and Ellen.

And...a Roof Progress Report

The north side of the roof is finished. The south side has been stripped to tar paper, the rotted underlayment has been repaired, and shingles are partially installed. But a picture (or two or three) is worth a thousand words...!

The roofers led by foreman, David, pictured at the far right.
