

St. Nicholas Orthodox Cathedral

Stavropigia of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church Kyivan Patriarchate

"My name is Luke."

So began Father Luke's sermon following his first Divine Liturgy celebrated in St. Nicholas Cathedral on Sunday, November 7, as newly-ordained Hieromonk Luke. It was a joyous day! We welcomed back Father Luke from Kyiv...

...prayed an Akathist to St. Nicholas, congratulated several parishioners on their awards from Patriarch Philaret. And we were still in awe of the phenomenal success of Pierogi Festival 2021 the day before!

Bulletin for Sunday, November 14, 2021

STNICHOLASEOC.ORG

Following Divine Liturgy on Sunday, November 7, Cathedral Council President, Tom Hanney, congratulated Father Luke on behalf of the congregation.

Father Luke presented awards on behalf of Patriarch Philaret and congratulated several parishioners who have done extraordinary volunteer work for St. Nicholas Cathedral.

The St. Volodymyr Medal was presented to parishioner Serge Loginow, recognizing his family's contributions to the Cathedral since its founding in 1917.

Father Oleksii Kacharai received a Gramota.

Ellen Hanavin, Treasurer, Cathedral Council, received a Gramota for her devotion to St. Nicholas Cathedral.

Susan Guz, Patriarchal Choir Director, and Vice-President, Cathedral Council, received the St. Olga Medal “for all she does.”

In addition, Susan, as a Ktytor of the Volyn Theological Academy in Lutsk, Ukraine, was presented with a pendant merit award and commemorative pin from Metropolitan Michael and Father Volodymyr Vakin, Rector, on the occasion of the 225th Anniversary of the founding of the Academy.

Judy Hanney, Sunday School Director and Pierogi Festival Director, received the St. Nicholas Medal, for countless hours of volunteerism to benefit the Cathedral.

Barbara Latsios, President of the Sisterhood that just celebrated 90 years of selfless service to the Cathedral, received the St. Barbara Medal.

What A Blessing....!

Pierogi Festival 2021

began early Saturday morning, November 6, with a blessing from Father Luke. The Festival is St. Nicholas Cathedral's biggest annual fundraiser. The blessing was followed by the most astounding, most successful, most amazing Pierogi Festival ever!

Even though Festival Director, Judy Hanney, significantly increased food production this year -- 10,000 pierogies! -- we SOLD OUT in 8 hours on Day 1. Every seller's dream! Day 2 of the Festival never happened. The crowds started to gather before our doors opened at 12 noon on Saturday, November 6. And then the long food line snaked out our door, through the parking lot, down Hoffman Place, around the corner onto Brown Street, turning another corner onto 7th Street - and at one point reached our front doors! Pierogi Festival attendees patiently waited up to 3 hours in line before reaching the steaming buffet chafers inside filled with our delicious homemade pierogies, halupki, blintzes, pelmeni and halushki.

The line of people entering the hall never ended. There was never a lull.

The attractive RAFFLE display (all prizes were donated) was the first thing attendees saw when they finally made it inside!

Colleen Philipp, managed the Raffle this year, and she did a great job! The Raffle alone brought in $2,000. The 4 top prizes were the bicycle, the TV, the framed Beatles prints and the grill.

This year, a photo booth was set up in the tent and folks had fun taking “souvenir selfies”!

The Bake Shop and Boutique were also very successful. Literally not a crumb of cake was left to sell by Saturday night.

Attendees also appreciated the beauty and sanctity of our Orthodox icons -- and sales reached almost $1,000.

The crowd was directed into our adjacent 2,500 square foot, heated tent to enjoy outdoor dining. Several vendors flanked our walkway.

Father Bohdan's Sermon – Sunday, November 7, 2021

Luke 16:19-31

Today's Scripture reading is the parable of the Rich Man and the Beggar named Lazarus – two men as different as night and day. For the Rich Man, daily life is great, wonderful, happy. For Lazarus, his daily life is torture, living in rags among the dogs. Both die, their lives are reversed – and the outcome is set for eternity. The Rich Man realizes why he is in agony and worries about his family, that his fate will become theirs. And so he pleads for Lazarus to rise from the dead, go to his family and shock them into salvation. But the answer is a definite NO. The Rich Man was told: If they do not hear Moses and the prophets – the Scripture – neither will they be persuaded by one who rises from the dead. So all is lost for the Rich Man. This parable should be enough to convince you to live compassionately, live generously, and to live with your riches kept in perspective. If the Lord has given you a gift, share it. For our life on earth is very short. Enjoy each day, for sure, but let this parable remind you of the big picture of eternity. AMEN.

EXTERIOR PAINTING FUND-RAISING CAMPAIGN

Help us reach our $20,000 goal. Your donation will be matched by an anonymous Private Trust.

The interior iconography in the Sanctuary is flaking. The interior walls of our stairwells are crumbling. We need to correct this problem immediately. Painting the exterior walls of the building with special elastomeric paint will stop the water seepage. This is the last step in our efforts to WATERPROOF our beautiful Cathedral building.

THANK YOU!

Please keep in your prayers our generous anonymous donor. As one parishioner recently said:
"WE ARE BLESSED TO HAVE SUCH GENEROUS BENEFACTORS. MAY THEIR GIFT INSPIRE OTHERS!"

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2021

21ST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all!

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The Prokeimenon in the 4th Tone: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

CHOIR: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

READER: Bless the Lord, O my soul! O my God, Thou art very great! O Lord, how manifold are Thy works!

CHOIR: In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Corinthians.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? But earnestly desire the best gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way. Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing. Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away. (1 Corinthians 12:27-13:8)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: Go forth, prosper and reign because of truth and meekness and righteousness.
You love righteousness and hate iniquity.

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. And when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease. These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying: "Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Samaritans. But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. (Matthew 10:1, 5-8)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
