Have A Blessed Ecclesiastical New Year

The Eastern Orthodox liturgical calendar determines the rhythm of life at St. Nicholas Cathedral – and our lives. Associated with each day are passages of Holy Scripture, Saints and events for commemoration and rules for fasting or feasting. We celebrate the Church New Year on Wednesday, September 14. Take the opportunity to focus on your spiritual life to make THIS year the year that you pray more, believe more, give more.. AND REGULARLY WORSHIP AT ST. NICHOLAS CATHEDRAL

Our interior painting project is complete!
The walls have been restored to their original color, enhancing the beauty of the icons.

The north wall needed extensive replastering.

Last week, on two particularly hot and humid days with no breeze, the Hawthorne Painting crew worked in 90-degree heat – and always with a smile! The guys repeatedly said they were blessed to be part of the restoration of St. Nicholas Cathedral and often asked about the icons and our church history. The same team restored the front of the Cathedral, including the columns, in 2020 – and returned this year to do the exterior and interior painting.

The “Sacred Virgin” icon, the patron saint of Ukrainian chaplains.

To donate to the interior painting project, please contribute to our BUILDING FUND. Thank you!

We, as members of St. Nicholas Orthodox Cathedral, are guardians of the Cathedral, responsible for keeping the building structure and its exquisite religious works of art – the icons – in immaculate condition. This is our legacy for future generations of Orthodox faithful.

Our building, constructed in 1864, is almost 160 years old. Through the years, significant capital improvements have been made to maintain the beauty and integrity of the Cathedral. But the work never ends, and St. Nicholas Cathedral can always use your help. Please support our BUILDING FUND.

“And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.”

Today's Scripture reading is the story about a young man, a good man who followed God's commandments and who had everything -- except one thing: the assurance of eternal life. He was not certain that he was "right with God."

And his worry was justified. Whatever you love the most, serve the most, seek out most, worship the most about the most is "god" can be your account, the way particular position influence, power, pleasure. Your "god" is whatever you allow to control you, to be the ultimate guide to decision-making, the place of your supreme loyalty, and the source of your self-worth. Jesus revealed to the young man in today's Bible reading that he was NOT good enough for God, despite his wealth. And sadly, after hearing this, the man then made the wrong decision. He walked away from Jesus. Jesus summarized the man's actions perfectly with these familiar words: it is easier for a camel to enter the eye of a needle than for a rich man to get into Heaven.

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2022

13TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all!

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The Prokeimenon in the 4th Tone: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

CHOIR: O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

READER: Bless the Lord, O My soul! O my God, Thou art very great! O Lord, how manifold are Thy works!

CHOIR: In wisdom hast Thou made them all!

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Acts.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...And as John was finishing his course, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not He. But behold, there comes One after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to loose.' Men and brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to you the word of this salvation has been sent. For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they did not know Him, nor even the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled them in condemning Him. And though they found no cause for death in Him, they asked Pilate that He should be put to death. Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. But God raised Him from the dead. He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. And we declare to you glad tidings-that promise which was made to the fathers. (Acts 13:25-32)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: Go forth, prosper and reign because of truth, meekness and righteousness.
You love righteousness and hate iniquity.

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. Now King Herod heard of Him, for His name had become well known. And he said, "John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him." Others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is the Prophet, or like one of the prophets." But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!" For Herod himself had sent and laid hold of John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. Because John had said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." Therefore Herodias held it against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not; for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Then an opportune day came when Herod on his birthday gave a feast for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. And when Herodias' daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you." He also swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom." So she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist!" Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard of it, they came and took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb. Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. (Mark 6:14-30)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
