The Feast Day of the Exaltation – or Elevation – of the Holy Cross

The Elevation of the Cross commemorates the discovery by Saint Helen in the 4th Century of the Cross on which Jesus was crucified. The Feast Day also commemorates the Cross' recovery from the Persians by Emperor Heraclius in the 7th Century. The Cross was then “elevated” in the Church of the Resurrection in Jerusalem.

This Feast Day is a holy day of strict fasting and repentance -- a day when Orthodox Christians rededicate themselves to our crucified Lord and pledge their faithfulness to Him with prostrations as the Choir sings the “Hymn of the Veneration Before The Cross”:

“Before Thy Cross, we bow down in worship, O Master, and Thy holy resurrection, we glorify.”

Weather permitting, CLC will hold its worship services Sunday mornings on our grass from 8 am-9:30 am and 11:00 am-12:30 pm. This is a TEMPORARY situation. CLC will stop renting our outdoor space when Philadelphia transitions to the Green Phase. CLC has congregational singing accompanied by a keyboard. Pastor Mike Anderson said he expects up to 50 people to attend each service. Everyone will follow COVID-19 safeguards. (CLC is NOT using our parking lot; the CLC congregation will park on 7th Street.)

Our Annual Parish Meeting is SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2020. A boxed lunch, including soup and salad, will be served to all attendees. President, Tom Hanney, will lead the meeting. This is your opportunity to hear about our accomplishments this past year and future projects. Members will vote for Council Members. We invite you to ask questions. (You may recall that our semi-annual update meeting scheduled for March 29 was canceled because of the quarantine, so there will be a lot of information to share at the September meeting.)

Father Bohdan's Sermon
Sunday, September 20, 2020
Matthew 22:35-46

In today's Scripture reading, Jesus sums up all of God's law in 2 commandments: LOVE GOD and LOVE OTHERS. Simple. Jesus got straight to the point what the Bible is all about.

LOVE GOD. With all your heart, soul and mind. That means worship no idols or objects. Trust only God to save you and give you eternal life. Think about God as you think about your true love. And keep His commandments.

LOVE OTHERS. Love your neighbor. And who is your neighbor? ANYONE in need. Treat others as YOU want to be treated. Be kind to one another, forgive each other, just as God has forgiven you over and over again. During the coronavirus quarantine, I often reminded you to love your neighbor -- and by wearing masks, we show our love for each other by wanting to protect each other from harm.

Learning to love our neighbors keeps us balanced and sane in this volatile world -- for without this commandment keeping us in line, the world would be far worse. Loving your neighbor requires you to show compassion, kindness and forgiveness. Let your neighbor know that you of service in time of need -- as God is always there for you when you need Him. AMEN.

THE SCRIPTURE READING FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

16TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST - ELEVATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

PRIEST: Let us attend! Peace be unto all!

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The Prokeimenon in the 7th Tone: Extol the Lord our God. Worship at His footstool for He is holy!

CHOIR: Extol the Lord our God. Worship at His footstool for He is holy!

READER: The Lord reigns, let the people tremble! Extol the Lord our God!

CHOIR: Worship at His footstool for He is holy!

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Corinthians.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written: Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. For Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom; but we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks foolishness, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. (1 Corinthians 1:18-24)

PRIEST: Peace be unto thee, Reader.

READER: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

READER: It is good to give thanks unto the Lord, to sing praises to Thy Name, O Most-High!
To declare Thy mercy in the morning and Thy truth by night!

CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRIEST: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. Peace be unto all.

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading is from the Holy Gospel according to Saint John.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to our law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God." Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid, and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?" Jesus answered, "You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin." When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!" Then he delivered Him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led Him away. And He, bearing His cross, went out to a place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha, where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the center. Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold your son!" Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home. After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!" So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!" And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit. Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may believe. (John 19:6-11, 13-20, 25-28, 30-35)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
