Excerpt from the Christmas Message of the
Metropolitan of Kyiv and All Ukraine Epifaniy

Dear Brothers and Sisters!
Christ Is Born! Glory be to Him!

Such short and simple words of this traditional Christian greeting -- CHRIST IS BORN! GLORY BE TO HIM! -- but how deep the words are because they testify to our belief that the promise of God has come true: the Savior of the world has truly appeared. The second Person of the Holy Trinity was born of the Holy Spirit and Mary the Virgin becoming also the Son of Man.

We know that the Lord Jesus Christ did all that is necessary for the salvation of all men, but it depends on each of us individually whether we accept this gift of eternal life prepared for us. Therefore, the holiday of the Nativity of Christ -- CHRISTMAS -- is not only a reminder of the ancient historical events in Bethlehem. It is not only an opportunity for good dreams and wishes, for communicating with relatives and friends, for gifts and pleasure. Christmas is a personal appeal to everyone to give their lives an answer to all that the Savior has done for us.

What is this answer? It is in two commandments set forth by God: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your thoughts...and your neighbor as yourself." Sin divides, but love unites. Love reveals to us the unity between ourselves in goodness and truth; love returns us to unity with the Heavenly Father.

Therefore, on this holiday, understanding the meaning of the Nativity of Christ, rejoicing that the Son of God was born for the sake of us and for our salvation, we must urge ourselves to fulfill the will of God, to eradicate hate and untruth from our hearts and all that distances us from the Lord and from our neighbors, all that is opposite of love. This is not an easy task, but it is for this that the Savior of the world came to help us in its accomplishment.

For our sake, the Son of God in humility came into the world, calling everyone to peace, harmony and unity, so that we walk in the way of truth and are not deceived. Let us do everything in our power to give a good response to this call! Christ is born! Glory be to Him!

Our Orthodox heritage deepens the joy of the Feast of the Nativity – Christmas – and brings us closer to its spiritual message. That we may prepare ourselves properly for Christmas, the Church sets aside the five weeks preceding it as a period of fasting. Christmas is then ushered in with the traditional supper on Christmas Eve.

Family and friends gather for this Holy Supper. If a member is absent or has died during the preceding year, a vacant chair at the table symbolizes his or her spiritual participation in the meal. The floor under the table is covered with straw to remind the family of a manger, the lowly birthplace of Jesus Christ. In the center of the table, a candle, previously blessed, casts its warm light on the group as it offers prayers before the meal.

The traditional supper consists of 12 dishes to symbolize the 12 Apostles. No meat or animal fats are permitted. Some of the traditional foods are mushroom soup, bread, garlic, sauerkraut, peas, beans, potatoes, fish, fruit or vegetable filled dumplings, stuffed cabbage, nuts, raisins, prunes.

After the meal is over, church bells call everyone to worship. Confession will be heard at 6:30 pm, followed by Vespers at 7:00 pm.

Father Bohdan's Sermon - Sunday, December 30 – Luke 14:16-24

Today's Scripture reading is the parable of the great wedding banquet. The banquet is a metaphor for the great kingdom of God. The host of the banquet invites many socially acceptable people – guests he would like to dine and converse with. A lavish feast was prepared, and a great deal of thought and money went into the banquet. And what happened? No one showed up – plus they gave a variety of excuses for not coming, some more curious and sillier than others. From the host's perspective, he went to a great deal of trouble, demonstrating love and respect for his guests as he prepared the feast. He counted on these guests coming to his house to enjoy the feast. And they failed him. Now substitute God for the host – and substitute yourself for the guest. God invites you every day to hear His word. God is also counting on you. There are those who continually give excuses for not even coming to church. Excuses like: Times have changed...or...I don't need a church to believe in God...or...I have a direct connection to God. Such excuses could keep you from eternal salvation. So, pay attention to today's parable and accept God's invitation to his banquet. Be the person who is loyal, be the person who never lets anyone down, be the best friend anyone could have, be the one person someone else could depend on no matter what – and be the person who spreads the word of God by your example. AMEN.

PRIEST: Wisdom!

READER: The reading is from the Hebrews.

PRIEST: Let us attend!

READER: Brothers...God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For to which of the angels did He ever say: "You are My Son, Today I have begotten You"? And again: "I will be to Him a Father, And He shall be to Me a Son"? But when He again brings the firstborn into the world, He says: "Let all the angels of God worship Him." And of the angels He says: "Who makes His angels spirits And His ministers a flame of fire." But to the Son He says: "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You With the oil of gladness more than Your companions." And: "You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth, And the heavens are the work of Your hands. They will perish, but You remain; And they will all grow old like a garment; Like a cloak You will fold them up, And they will be changed. But You are the same, And Your years will not fail." Amen. (Hebrews 1:1-12)

READER: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! CHOIR: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

CHOIR: And to thy spirit.

PRIEST: The reading from the Holy Gospel according to Saint Luke.

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.

PRIEST: Let us attend. And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city. Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child. So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!" So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. Now when they had seen Him, they made widely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them. (Luke 2:1-20)

CHOIR: Glory to Thee, O Lord, glory to Thee.
